REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE

ART OF CRAFTING CAREER CANVAS

Date : 16th December 2023

Time : 05:00 -6:00PM

Platform: Google Meet

Faculty In-charge: Madhumathi Pujar

The Department of Commerce organised a highly informative Guest Lecture focused on the "Art of Crafting Career Canvas" on 16th December. The event, which aimed to provide valuable insights into building a successful career path, featured a distinguished guest lecturer, Professor Nisha A.

Professor Nisha A., the esteemed guest lecturer, is a Corporate Communication Expert. Ma'am is a certified soft skills trainer from (Indian Leadership Academy), a certified public speaker from Skill Central (UNITED KINGDOM) and a certified Lean Six Sigma Yellow belt certified from Ministry of MSME. She has trained more than 1000+ employees and 3000+ students on behavioural aspects. She has a demonstrated history of working in the IT service industry and in academics.

The guest lecture proved to be highly beneficial, offering a combination of engagement, information, and interactivity. It addressed a need for final-year students who were seeking insights in their resumes and interview approaches. The session was very productive, providing students with valuable guidance on optimising their body language and behaviour in professional settings, interviews and corporate life. Overall, it served as a valuable resource for students looking to enhance their understanding of effective resume-building and interview strategies.

In conclusion, the guest lecture on the "Art of Crafting Career Canvas" organised by the Department of Commerce proved to be an impressive success, providing participants with actionable insights.
