

Report on Women in Leadership Series-7

Date: 17-05-2023

Venue: College Quadrangle

Resource Person: Smt.Arundhathi Nag

Number of Faculty & students attended: Offline: 350 Online: 694

Women in leadership lecture series-7 was organized on 17th May 2023 at college quadrangle mLAC Autonomous. Smt. Arundhathi Nag ,Indian Actor, founder of Sanket trust, founder trustee of Ranga Shankara, Padma Shri Award was the resource person for the women leadership lecture series. All the teaching, non- teaching staffs and all the students of mLAC attended the session.

The Program was hosted by final year students by welcoming Sri S S Naganand Chairman, Sri K Jairaj Managing Trustee, Dr. Nagalaxmi Principal, faculty, Parents and Students.The session began with an college anthem and welcome address by Sri K Jairaj Managing Trustee mLAC Trust and Dr. Nagalaxmi Principal . The speaker was introduced by Sri K Jairaj Managing Trustee mLAC Trust.

Arundhathi Nag Madam address the gathering by sharing experience of her life and how to be a strong women in the difficult situation. She also shared about the entire journey of film industry, health issues and financial status. Madam mentioned about her biggest accomplishment that a ranga shankara a very well known theatre located in south bangalore JP nagar and run by sanket trsut which was her husband's one of his dream.

Then after brief information given by madam there was a session opened was questions and feedback. Many students asked questioned and feedback which was interesting and motivated for all the members who were present in the session.

The Sri S S naganand , Chairman Sir addressed the gathering by presidential address. Sir encouraged and motivated students by stories and highlighted on hard work will make a strong and good career in life.

In the end of the session vote of thanks was hosted by the students and there was faculty interaction was organised in the Seminar hall announced by Rajeshwari M program coordinator hence requested all faculty members to be present for interactive session.

Speaker took over the session after the introduction given by Dr. Nagalaxmi. CA Shubha Ganesh started the session with the outline of leader, need and how to become women leaders in the society . many of the students also expressed there future goal and how they want to be independent in their life.

Speaker wished to have an interactive session with the audience about there lifestyles, future goals, earning, savings and investments. Students were involved in the session, gave there ideas and future thoughts. Later Speaker gave overall veivs of lifestyles, goals and savings by giving her as a example. She said about her education, working styles, balancing personal and work life, investments. She also mentioned about time value of money how it is important in our life and different forms of investments.

Finally, the session was concluded with feedback and with vote of thanks by Rajeshwari M.

Principal
Maharani Lakshmi Ammanni College for Women, Autonomous
Science Post, Bangalore - 560 012.