History of College

Recognizing the genuine need to further the cause of women's education, Dr. K.N.V. Sastri (1895-1984), noted scholar, author and professor in the area of Indian History and Politics – envisioned an exclusive women's degree college in the northern part of Bangalore. The outcome of his vision was the establishment of MAHARANI LAKSHMI AMMANNI COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, with Dr. M.N. Mahadevan as Founder President and Sri T.S. Rajam as Vice President, and Dr. K.N.V. Sastri as Founder–Director-cum-Coordinator. With a strength of just 12 girls, the college affiliated to Bangalore University, started functioning from 1972 in the building of the nearby Government Boys' School. Smt. M.C. Vedavalli became the first Principal and steered the institution firmly towards the consolidation of the founders' vision. Subsequently, Dr. T.L. Shantha who held the position of Principal for over three decades provided greater fillip to the growth of the institution. During her tenure, the institution received several accolades, the significant ones being- NAAC Accreditation, the STAR college status, recognition as a College with Potential for Excellence and the Autonomous status awarded by UGC.

A copy of the Report of the Expert Committee is also attached for your information and record. The observations and recommendations of the Committee may be kept in view while implementing the Scheme. Also, the scheme may be implemented as per the spirit of the Scheme and in accordance with provisions laid down in the guidelines for XII Plan which are available on UGC website (www.ugc.ac.in).

EXAMINATION REFORMS

Reforms in Examination and Evaluation Procedures:

Autonomous Status has created an excellent opportunity to revise, redesign and reinvent the assessment and evaluation process to be made more objective and complete.

Reforms are carried out in the examination procedures to ensure a transparent and efficient examination system. Areas of improvement are identified through examination meetings and feedback mechanisms. Complete Autonomy for the conduct of examination has thus given more freedom and flexibility to plan and execute the exam process.

Pre-examination reforms:

- Calendar of Examination : The practice of preparing the examination calendar in consultation with the CoEs of the Departments is adhered to which is also published in the college website and displayed in the students' hand book . The Examination Department ensures a strict adherence to the examination calendar.
- Impact: The EC has brought in transparency in the examination procedure and has ensured timely conduct of examination and publication of results.

- BoE Scrutiny : The panel of BoE scrutiny is to review the question papers set by the faculty members (both, internal and external faculty members) and to ensure that the QP follows the approved pattern and covers the entire syllabus. The question papers are again audited by external members, post the end semester exam results, to gain feedback.
- Impact: The review of QPs by the BoE ensure high standards in QP setting and helps in removing any incongruities and inconsistencies in the QP.

- Impact: The procedure of retotaling of marks had led to an error free evaluation and quick publication of results and this reform has resulted in reduction re-evaluation and retotaling grievances.
- Result Analysis: The committee constituted for the detailed analysis of the published results, shall examines the results and provide valuable insights into student performance and evaluation methods. The result analysis is compiled by the CoE and is shared with all faculty members.
- Impact: Result analysis has ensured measures to identify areas of improvement in teaching-learning methodology.
- Assigning grades instead of marks for assessment, has made the evaluation process more realistic. Transformation of Grade Point Average (CGPA) has now been raised to a 10-point scale in compliance with the Bangalore University practice.
- Security Features: security features have been introduced in the printing of marks cards that are unique to the Marks Card and these security features ensure that the Marks Card cannot be duplicated.
- Results of end semester examination can be viewed online after being announced. The End-Semester exam is an evaluation of student performance at a higher level. These results provide a comparison of the student's achievements over the period of the course. This provides the college an impetus for comparative analysis of the results of every discipline.
- An Examination Grievance Cell addresses all grievances pertaining to examination and evaluation related to continuous assessment and the semester exams compilation and speedy redressal of examination-related grievances and functions.
