WHEREAS

- A. SLK is an IT service provider.
- B. MLACW is an educational institute.
- C. The Parties intend to collaborate for their mutual benefit wherein MLCAW will implement SLK's learning material and other relevant literature in MLACW's educational programs and in exchange SLK will hire MLACW candidates who have completed the educational program under the terms and conditions as agreed herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT

- 1.1. MLACW hereby agrees to include 'Testing Concepts' in their educational curriculum, described in detail in Annexure A ("Course") to this AGREEMENT. SLK may provide valuable inputs to MLACW in the preparation and customization of the curriculum.
- 1.2. Once the Course has been introduced in the MLACW curriculum, upon mutual agreement, the Parties may decide to hold workshops to be conducted by SLK relating to the Course and MLACW shall facilitate the same.
- 1.3. Once the examination for the said Course is conducted in line with the MLACW examination procedure, MLACW shall facilitate and extend the necessary support to SLK to conduct campus interview of the students who have completed the said Course. MLACW shall provide first preference to SLK to conduct the campus interview.

- 1.4. The selection of students shall be subject to SLK's hiring policy and the selection criteria of SLK as set forth in Annexure B (Selection Criteria) to this AGREEMENT, which may change from time to time as per the SLK company policy. SLK shall commit to offering to hire a minimum of 20 students during campus hiring.
- 1.5. There are no financial commitments on either Party. Each Party shall be responsible for its expenditure with regard to the implementation of this AGREEMENT. If there is any financial consideration, the same shall be dealt separately.

2. MLACW OBLIGATIONS

- 2.1. MLACW shall obtain necessary approvals, permissions, licenses of whatsoever nature required for offering the Course from the concerned authorities.
- 2.2. MLACW shall educate the students with the Course as per the industry requirements and standards.
- 2.3. MLACW shall extended necessary support to SLK to conduct workshops for the students who have opted for the Course in the college premises of MLACW.
- 2.4. MLACW shall engage the qualified and specialized lecturers or teaching faculty for the said Course.
- 2.5. MLACW shall duly inform SLK the examination dates and mutually discuss regarding conducting the campus interviews.
- 2.6. MLACW shall ensure to provide the first right to hire the students to SLK and shall not permit or allow the students to attend any interviews from other companies unless the selection result has been announced by SLK.
